

ARTFORUM

artguide

NEWS

SHOWS

PRINT

COLUMNS

VIDEO

BOOKFORUM

NEWS

Carolin Eidner, from the series: "Particularities of Gravity Demands," 2017.

which has primarily been shown in Europe.”

December 07, 2017 at 3:28pm

CAROLIN EIDNER WINS 2017 MIAMI BEACH NADA ARTADIA AWARD

Artadia and the New Art Dealers Alliance (NADA) announced today that Carolin Eidner is the recipient of the 2017 Miami Beach NADA Artadia Award, a $5,000 unrestricted, merit-based award granted to one contemporary artist exhibiting at the fair. Eidner is the first European artist to win the prize.

Eidner's work is exhibited at Natalie Hug (booth 7.15) at NADA Miami, which opened Thursday, December 7, and runs through December 10. The artist was selected by a jury of Jose Carlos Diaz, the chief curator of the Andy Warhol Museum, and Andria Hickey, a senior curator at MOCA Cleveland.

“It is always exciting to see the work of artists who are little known in the United States,” Hickey said. “Carolin Eidner's concrete paintings shown as a solo booth at Natalie Hug are fantastic and represent only a fraction of her multifaceted practice